

All dancers must adhere to the IBA dress code and use the approved dancewear required for their program & level with the IBA. Dancers should also be sure to have the proper shoes for each lesson. The dancer's full first and last name should be marked in each/every shoe.

Dancers must also come with their hair prepared for the lesson, to include a clean ballet bun for all ballet lessons. Dancers should be prepared early, prior to the start of their lesson time, so as not to enter the lesson late and cause any disruption. Young children should never be sent into IBA's facilities alone and unprepared for the lesson. A parent and/or legal guardian must prepare their own dancer for his/her lesson. For public health reasons, staff and other students should not assist with such matters.
